Benefits Spotlight: Social Security Appointments at the District!

ATTENTION PCCD RETIREES!

Are you retired? Are you (or your eligible dependents) already 65 or turning 65 within the next three months? Have you delayed applying for Medicare because the process feels confusing? Do you know if you even qualify for Medicare benefits? Personalized help is available.

The Social Security Administration has agreed to conduct personalized telephone appointments for PCCD employees/retirees on Wednesday, July 16, 2008 between 8 am – 11am and 1 pm – 3 pm in the Peralta District Office.

Apply for either Social Security or Medicare benefits during your visit. For your convenience:

- You can park for free;
- You will have access to PCCD & Social Security resources;
- You can receive more information about the PCCD Medicare Reimbursement program.*

RSVP by July 11th - Call the Benefits Office at 510 466 7229 to schedule your appointment.

Remember, the District reimburses you for your premium upon receipt of premium documentation.*
